

By signing this letter and/or responding via email to acknowledge receipt, the district affirms that it has received and reviewed the full contents of this communication. This document will be retained for reference in any future proceedings or legal matters.